

MEMORANDUM FOR THE RECORD

S E C R E T

21 Dec 83

SUBJECT: Senate Hearing on World Petroleum Outlook.

Howard Useem, professional staff member of the Senate Energy and Natural Resources Committee, called this date to advise we will be receiving a written invitation from Chairman James. A. McClure (R-ID) to testify at a closed hearing on 27 January 1984 in S407 of the Capitol (along with DOE and DOD) on the "World Petroleum Outlook." The hearing will be conducted at the Top Secret level but no codeword information.

Useem will provide more specific guidance (as to what is wanted from CIA) at an early date.

Chief, Senate Liaison

25X1

Howard Useem, 306 SDOB,

224-5205

25X1

USEEM, Howard S., prof. staff member, Subcom. on Energy Regulation, Senate Energy and Natural Resources. Born Aug. 1, 1947. Mich. State University, 1969-72, B.S.; University of Wash., 1972-74, M.A. in economics (with high honor); Phi Kappa Phi. Enlisted as Pvt., U.S. Army in 1966; released as 1st Lt. in 1969 after service in Korea during the Korean conflict. 1974-78, economist, Congressional Research Service, Library of Congress; 1978-79, chief economist, Independent Petroleum Assn. of Amer. Member: Amer. Economic Assn.; Natl. Economists Club; Western Economic Assn.; Intl. Energy Economists Assn.